

Airl serves me as a resident of the local community. The effect on our community would be devastating if Airl was displaced by an LPFM broadcaster. The service provided by Airl is in the best public interest because it sends a positive message to the local community and provides vital information that directly influences and impacts our lives on a daily basis.